Del Monte, the Beautiful

A palatial hotel-home, located in 200 acres of grand English Park. In this beautiful home, unsurpassed in cuisine and service, a single gentleman, or a gentleman with family, can enjoy all the privacy and elegance of a country estate, at less than interest cost of a very small es-full measure to any person transient or permanent, seeking the comforts and surroundings of a genteel life; further favored by every enjoyment that makes such life worth living — i.e., strolling, bathing, swimming, riding, driving, hunting, sailing, fishing, golfing and automobiling. With scenery and surroundings unsurpassed in America, this resort returns to all patrons more than is claimed by the most extravagant advocate of its merits. :::

Geo. P. Snell, Manager

Preface

has been organized by the Craftsmen of California as a means by which to bring their work to the attention of the public; for which purpose the Guild will hold exhibitions from time to time, the first being held in San Francisco during December, 1903.

Permanent places for exhibitions and sales are to be established as soon as proper arrangements can be made. Pending the establishment of such places of sale a Corresponding Committee has been appointed to furnish information regarding the work of the Guild. The Guild is now prepared to receive orders in the following crafts: bookbinding, wood-carving, tapestry, metalwork, keramics, lace and needlework, and applied art in all its branches.

Members of the committee will be pleased to correspond with those interested.
